

Appendix 1: Questions - Ripple Effect Mapping Exercise

RESPONSIVE FUND-FOCUSED GROUP DISCUSSIONS GUIDING QUESTIONS

Co-researchers

Impact on community:

1. Can you describe any unexpected challenges or successes you've encountered while working on the household addresses initiative? Prompt: How have you overcome this?
2. Can you describe any changes in your community due to your participation in this project?
 - a. Probe: positive and negative
 - b. What are the impacts of these changes & to who?
 - c. In what ways do you believe the Household Addresses initiative has contributed to building a stronger and more resilient community?
3. Can you identify any changes in community dynamics of relationships since the introduction of household addresses?
 - a. Please give examples?
 - b. Think specifically about different groups here e.g. within communities but also with governance actors etc.

Impact on you:

4. Has your involvement in the implementation of household addresses impacted your understanding of community needs and priorities? If so, how?
5. Has your participation in the project changed you?
 - a. has your participation in this project empowered you to contribute to positive change within the community? In what ways?
 - b. Has your participation limited your contribution to positive change in any way? Have there been any personal or professional growth experiences for you as a result of your participation in this project? (skills gained)
6. Has your role as a co-researcher influenced your interactions with community members and other stakeholders?
 - a. In what ways?

Sustainability

7. How do you perceive the long-term effects of household addresses on community development and well-being?
 - a. Probe: barriers and enablers to this?
8. What lessons have you learned from your involvement in the household addresses initiative that you believe could benefit future community development projects?

What are the barriers and enablers to the sustainability of the household addresses?

CHPs

Impact on the community

1. Can you describe any changes in community health outcomes that you've observed since the implementation of household addresses?
2. How do you believe the Household Addresses initiative has impacted community members' access to healthcare services?